Cats sure do sleep a lot! That's because when they sleep, they can travel to far off places in their dreams. 'Dream On, Kitty Cat' are the tales of one such cat...

Flower Power

After a spring day in the garden, Crispin dreams his way to a florist where he discovers that people love flowers as much as he does. Flowers are given as gifts, used to celebrate weddings, to brighten a room, and to cheer someone up. Crispin wants to surprise Emily with some flowers when she comes home from school, but what is the best way to do this? No eating the flowers, Crispin!

Special Treats

There's nothing that Crispin loves more than a saucer of milk - it's his special treat. Crispin thinks everyone should have treats. He knows that Emily likes chocolate, so he dreams his way to a chocolatier's where he watches how chocolate is made and moulded into wonderful, tasty little treats he knows Emily would love.

Off To The Hospital

When Emily falls and hurts her knee, Crispin dreams his way to the hospital to watch the doctors and nurses at work. It's not just putting on a bandaid! There's so much more involved, and Crispin wants to learn how they will make Emily feel better again.

A Barrel Of Fun

There's a barrel in the garden that Crispin likes to sit on and watch Emily play. But where did this barrel come from, and who made it? Crispin must know! While he dreams, he discovers that a barrel-maker is called a cooper. A cooper must spend years learning how to make barrels and casks that can be used for all sorts of things - not just as a place for Crispin to sit!
